

COLONIAL MALAYSIA

Day 1: KLIA – Kuala Lumpur

Arrive at KLIA, after meet & greet service, transfer to hotel for check-in.
Overnight at Hotel.

Day 2: Kuala Lumpur Colonial Tour (6 hrs)

Morning Kuala Lumpur City Tour (Please refer KUL10 for description). Stop for lunch at Restaurant operated from a colonial bungalow. Before returning to hotel, visit the Central Market where you may chance upon local artists at work, among the many souvenir stalls of products from a different ethnic origin.
Overnight at Hotel. Breakfast & lunch included.

Day 3: Kuala Lumpur – Cameron Highlands (3 hrs)

Cameron Highlands, 6690 feet above sea level was first discovered in 1885 by the British during their colonial rule. Here the foliage changes and the temperature drops more than 80C Celsius from the lowland. During the winding ascent to the highlands, some aboriginals with their blow-pipes for hunting may be sighted. Optional dinner at the Scottish Ye Old' Smokehouse.
Overnight at Hotel

Day 4: Cameron Highlands

Morning tour the agro market and visit vegetable farms, orchard, Rose Valley and Sam Poh Temple. Rest of the day is free, to explore this resort area or simply rejuvenated by the fresh cool air. There is also a 18-hole golf course outside the hotel. A light sweater is recommended for evening.
Overnight at Hotel

Day 5: Cameron Highlands – Penang (2 hrs)

On the way to Penang, visit the Taiping museum – oldest in Malaysia, built during the British occupation and take a drive through the Lake Gardens and the Allied War Cemetery. The journey includes a pleasant drive across Penang Bridge, longest in Asia. Optional - Georgetown by Night with food stall dinner.
Overnight at Hotel

Day 6: Penang Colonial Tour (6 hrs)

Visit the most outstanding historical remains of George Town, the Fort Cornwallis, the Penang Museum, view historical buildings such as the Anglican Church, the Court House, Penang Art Gallery and the Chew Jetty and the Christian Cemetery where Francis Light was laid to rest. Ascend Penang Hill by means of funicular railway, built by the British in 1923. Enjoy lunch at the summit amidst the panoramic view of Penang Island. Drive past the Suffolk House, Western Road and the Jesselton Heights residential area. Final stop at Botanical Garden, commissioned during the British rule, to learn about the rare species of flora and fauna while monkeys roam freely in their natural habitats. Optional dinner at the 1885 restaurant in the hotel
Overnight at Hotel.

Day 7: Penang

The day is free at leisure until transfer to airport for departure flight.

If you would like us to include this in your arrangements please advise dates to allow us to price.